The Appellant, being not satisfied with the information received from the PIO, filed the First Appeal before the First Appellate Authority on 08.12.2023 Appellant, again having not received the required information from the FAA, filed the Second Appeal before the Arunachal Pradesh Information Commission on 12.03.2024 and the Registry of the Commission (APIC), having receipt of the Complaint, registered it as APIC No. 148/2024 and processed the same for its hearing and disposal.

Heard the Appellant.

The Appellant stated before the Commission that he has received complete information but it has not been compiled properly in regard to paging the documents year wise, which makes him difficult to understand and co-relate the information(s).

Upon the statement of the Appellant, the Commission/Court is convinced and satisfied with the PIO that, the PIO has provided the complete information to the Appellant as directed/ordered by the Commission. This Court has a view that paging can be done easily by any of the competent office staffs to compile the documents for the easy and best understanding of the Appellant.

The Commission ordered;

- i. The Appellant to approach the PIO to compile properly regarding the paging of the documents for better understanding as furnished to him by the PIO.
- ii. The PIO to assist the Appellant in compiling the information by proper paging of the documents for easy understanding of the Appellant.

In view of the above facts and circumstances, I find this appeal fit to be disposed off and closed, hence, this Court/Commission does not find any reason for further hearing to be conduct. And, accordingly, this appeal stands disposed off and closed once for all.
